

Next week is Right to Read Week!

To help you prepare your child for this special weeklong event, we want to share our schedule for the week:

Monday, March 30th is “Tell a Story or Make a Class Book Day”.

*The children will work on this project in their classrooms.

Tuesday, March 31st is “Spirit Day” and our visiting author/illustrator, Wil Clay, will be giving special presentations.

*Mr. Clay will autograph books right after each presentation.

*Be sure to wear your Waterville FROG shirt or AW Blue!!

Important Note to our Kindergarten Parents

Students from our Kindergarten Blue Group are invited and encouraged to join us during either one of the afternoon presentations (1:15-2:00 PM OR 2:15-3:00 PM). Parents will need to attend the presentation with their child.

Wednesday April 1st is “Cuddle Up with a Story Day”

*Students may wear pajamas and bring a small stuffed pet with which to cuddle while they read. They may pack their slippers but they must wear regular footwear to and from school.

Thursday, April 2nd is “Cozy Treat Day”

*Mrs. Thomas will be visiting each classroom with a very special treat!

Friday, April 3rd is “Read a Shirt Day”

*Don't forget to wear a shirt with a positive message, representing your favorite sport, team or activity, etc.

*Throughout the week each class will be enjoying some special time
- cuddled up with a good book in our “Cozy Living Room”.*
